

COVER LETTER

I am writing to express my interest in the REACT NATIVE DEVELOPER position that you have posted. I believe that my experience and skills make me a strong candidate for this position.

I have been developing software for over 5 years, with a focus on mobile development for the last 4 years. My experience includes developing native applications for iOS and Android as well as cross-platform applications using React Native and flutter. I have also developed web apps using React js and other React js libraries.

My core strengths include being able to quickly learn new technologies, being able to work independently or as part of a team, and being able to communicate effectively with both technical and non-technical people. I am also skilled at troubleshooting bugs and finding solutions to difficult problems.

I would like to thank you for your consideration and look forward to hearing from you soon.

NOTE:

My field of study is not related to computer science but I have the experience as it is my passion to learn and develop software application. you will find below my CV (Resume) link to the various work I have done on github
